Continued Funding

In order to continue to receive Band funding, students need to have a GPA of 2.25, attend class regularly, take a full time course load (for living allowance), send an official transcript to Ts'zil at the end of each semester and return monthly Progress Reports.

Conditions for termination of funding (Lil'wat Nation Funding Policy)

If the student does not honor the contract they made when they applied for funding, payments to the student may stop. Reasons for terminating funding include:

- Change of status from full time to part time without informing the Advanced Education Coordinator- Casey and Advanced Education Manager- Lisa.
- Request from institution related to attendance, conduct or other issues.
- Failure to meet the minimum grade expectations required by the Band or post secondary institute (GPA 2.25);
- Misuse of funding; and/or
- Failure to submit required documents such as transcripts, progress reports, etc.
