

Arts Whistler presents the WORLD PREMIERE OF A NEW INDIGENOUS PLAY

útszan

Written and Performed by YVONNE WALLACE

AT MAURY YOUNG ARTS CENTRE
SEPT. 19, 20, 21, 22 AT 7:00 PM.
SEPT. 19, 20 MATINEES AT 1:00 PM.

$5.00/PERSON
DOORS AT 6:15 PM
DOORS AT 12:15 PM

Directed by JEFFERSON GUZMAN

FREE BUS SHUTTLE to the Maury Young Arts Centre for each performance.
Bus loads at Ullus at 5:45pm, for 7:00pm performance. Returns to Ullus around 10:30pm.

A TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION INITIATIVE

Uncover Indigenous knowledge, humour, strength and resilience with this story about family and language reclamation that will resonate with all audiences.

Q & A to follow each performance.

Whistler is located within the unceded traditional territories of the Lil'wat Nation and Squamish Nation.

BUY TICKETS: ARTSWHISTLER.COM/UTSZAN

Age restrictions: 13+ (not suitable for elementary school-aged children)

BRITISH COLUMBIA
ARTS COUNCIL

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Arts Whistler is honoured to present "útszan" in collaboration with Whistler Community Services Society, the Whistler Blackcomb Foundation, the Community Foundation of Whistler, Lil'wat Nation, Dream Makers Literacy Coalition and Whistler Blackcomb. We are grateful for financial support from BC Hydro, the Resort Municipality of Whistler and the Fairmont Foundation.